Port Townsend Community Responds to Plea for School Supplies

Port Angeles, WA (November 2, 2009) – Thanks to the generous response of the Port Townsend community, First Federal was able to donate school supplies to six area schools through the bank’s annual America’s Promise campaign.

“We were truly amazed by the generosity of our customers and the community as a whole,” said Kelly Liske, Branch Manager for First Federal’s two locations in Port Townsend. “We are pleased to distribute these much needed supplies to help out our local schools.”

First Federal annually joins with General Colin Powell’s America’s Promise organization to gather much needed school supplies and distribute them in each market served by the bank.

Schools receiving supplies include: Port Townsend High School, Grant Street School, Blue Heron, Quilcene and Chimacum Elementary and Castle Hill Preschool.

First Federal has been serving North Olympic Peninsula families and businesses for more than 85 years. We’re a mutual organization, and that makes us different. We’re partners with every customer and we’re intent on making a difference with the kinds of community efforts that will mutually benefit all of us. First Federal operates branches in Port Angeles, Forks, Sequim and Port Townsend. Member FDIC, Equal Housing Lender.
